WITNESSES OF PROSECUTION ADDED AS DEFENDANTS

Board of Commerce Sprang a Surprise At This Morning's Session.

Harry C. Beckett Made a Frank and Very Bright Witness To-day.

In opening proceedings of the Board of Commerce sitting this morning, investigating the alleged Grocers' combine, A. W. Roebuck, prosecuting attorney, sprang a surprising motion upon the court in asking that the names of Frank Pearson and Pearson Bros., of Hamilton, wholesalers, be added to the list of those against whom the charge of forming a combine was laid. This was obvious, Mr. Beckett stated, to anyone who had read the evidence, and he pointed out that the evidence was in fact evidence against the prosecution, but implicated himself and his firm, he said, and asked that Mr. Pearson be given leave to Monday to prepare his defence. The court agreed, and granted the motion. Mr. Pearson will be served to-day.

THOMAS WHITE'S OPPOSED TO AN ELECTION Wants Tory and Liberal Unionists to Combine For the National Policy Afraid of Group Government and Class Legislation If There Was An Election

Ottawa, March 8.—A trumpet call to the country over to rally around the old National Policy of Sir John A. Macdonald, in the formation of a National Conservative party, was sounded by Sir Thomas White today. He said that the National Policy was the only policy which would give the country a future. He said that the National Policy was the only policy which would give the country a future. He said that the National Policy was the only policy which would give the country a future.

A BID FOR LEADERSHIP: Sir Thomas' address is considered in some quarters as a bid for the leadership of the National Conservative party, whether it is called National, Conservative or National Liberal-Conservative. It was a bid for the leadership of the National Conservative party, whether it is called National, Conservative or National Liberal-Conservative. It was a bid for the leadership of the National Conservative party, whether it is called National, Conservative or National Liberal-Conservative.

MANDATE NOT FILLED: The Toronto financier is absolutely certain that the election of 1917 was a failure. He was skeptical of the Liberal's ability to make good on the promises made in 1917. He was skeptical of the Liberal's ability to make good on the promises made in 1917. He was skeptical of the Liberal's ability to make good on the promises made in 1917.

IN AN URGENT HURRY: Sir Thomas White is a man of action. He is a man of action. He is a man of action. He is a man of action. He is a man of action. He is a man of action. He is a man of action. He is a man of action. He is a man of action. He is a man of action.

PROBLEMS STILL REMAIN: The manifesto of Sir Robert Borden in 1917, calling for dealing with the war problems, but with no mention of the National Policy, was a failure. It was a failure. It was a failure. It was a failure. It was a failure. It was a failure. It was a failure. It was a failure. It was a failure. It was a failure.

SUCCESSFUL FINANCE: The speaker denied that the policy of the department was unsound. It was proper that judgment should be formed by the country. It was proper that judgment should be formed by the country. It was proper that judgment should be formed by the country. It was proper that judgment should be formed by the country. It was proper that judgment should be formed by the country.

WOULD BE CLASS VERDICT: War developed class-consciousness more so than peace times. Every group had its problems. The result, if an election were held now, would be a verdict from the standpoint of class and not from a national standpoint. It was a verdict from the standpoint of class and not from a national standpoint. It was a verdict from the standpoint of class and not from a national standpoint.

FRANCE SENDS TROOPS TO EAST Prompt Measures to Prevent Further Massacres.

Turks Are Violating the Armistice. The first military step to be taken by the Allies will be the occupation of the Marash district to prevent further massacres of Armenians.

London, March 8.—While definite news of Allied occupation of Constantinople is still awaited, it is stated in some quarters that this operation is rendered all the more inevitable by the information that Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the Turkish Nationalist leader, is strengthening his forces in Asia Minor, and that Turkish bands are concentrating in Eastern Thrace in contravention to the terms of the armistice.

Premier Lloyd George announced in the House of Commons to-day prompt measures had been taken by the Allies to prevent further massacres of Armenians. He said that the Allies were taking prompt measures to prevent further massacres of Armenians. He said that the Allies were taking prompt measures to prevent further massacres of Armenians.

Regarding Constantinople, the Premier said that identical instructions for immediate drastic action had been dispatched to the Allied representatives there, who were acting in complete accord. It would be inadvisable, he added, to disclose these instructions until a reply had been received.

The Premier was asked whether drafting the final peace terms the Supreme Council would take steps to prevent the further massacre of Armenians. He said that the Supreme Council would take steps to prevent the further massacre of Armenians. He said that the Supreme Council would take steps to prevent the further massacre of Armenians.

NEW BOOM FOR WHITE TO LEAD His Speech Monday Causes a Revival.

Plenty of Unionists Against Him. Ottawa, March 8.—Following his speech to-day on the Address, Sir Thomas White's name is again prominent in the news columns. He said that his speech to-day on the Address, Sir Thomas White's name is again prominent in the news columns. He said that his speech to-day on the Address, Sir Thomas White's name is again prominent in the news columns.

Mr. Thomas has said again and again that he was filled with public life, and he is estimated to-day that it was only the argument that he should remain in the House to answer any criticism of his financial administration which prevented his resignation.

But to-night the gossip about his assuming the leadership will not down. On the other hand, there are Unionists in plenty who are strongly opposed to him. One Unionist member declared to-day that if Sir Thomas White became Premier, he would cross the floor immediately. His entry or supposed entry into the field has caused a decided rapprochement in the Western Union group and more of a willingness to decide their differences as to whether Mr. Meighen or Calder should represent them.

Meanwhile the row of empty benches between the Liberals and National Progressives has only Major Andrews in it. One Unionist member after another has said in turn that he regards the row as a political "No Man's Land," and that he can see no way in which he can avoid going over to it before the session is over.

It is reported tonight that Hon. Chas. Murphy and Hon. N. W. Howland, President of the Privy Council, will likely cross words tomorrow in the last day of the debate in the Address.

For the last week it has been rumored that Mr. Murphy was going to deliver a broadside on Mr. Howland, but thus far the Minister and former Minister have watched each other and said nothing. They have apparently been jockeying for position, but they will be able to communicate only one day more.

The vote will not likely be reached until late Tuesday night.

F. FARMAN'S DEFINITION OF ETHICS NOW DISCLOSED

O'Connor Lets Witnesses Know They Are Not Getting by With "Stalling"

Mr. Hollmuth Refers to Sales Manager of Kellogg Co. as "More Automaton"

The afternoon session of W. P. O'Connor's investigation into the alleged Groceries' Combustion, continued with the examination of a witness, who was of considerable interest, the cross examination reaching a point where it offered considerable controversy. After some preliminary questions the case was reopened. Frank Farmman, the local wholesaler, whose evidence had taken the morning, being on the stand for cross examination. The first lawyer for the defense to do this was Robert McKay, of Toronto.

Mr. McKay questioned the witness generally as to his former business as manufacturer's agent, prior to his 1918 entry into the wholesale trade, and as to the period of transition from that business to the wholesale trade.

As appeared during this time that to an outsider you would think that in the agency business, "stalling" is the rule, "suggestion" of Mr. McKay.

"You wished to pick out the lines of the wholesale business to conduct as your own?"

"Yes," admitted the witness. "If the situation was not explained, an outsider might think so."

CAPITALIZATION

Preferred Stock - $1,000,000.00
Common Stock - $1,000,000.00
(No Bonds)

The following information is summarized from a letter from Mr. B. Moore, President of the Company:

1. The Continental Oil Company, Limited, of Canada, the holders and assets of which have been acquired by the North Star Oil &amp; Refining Company, Limited, a Canadian corporation, has been successfully operated in the Prairie Provinces for the past several years.

2. The Company has no land lease or other fixed intangibles outstanding nor any floating debt other than current accounts payable.

3. Earnings after the completion of a refinery for the production of refined oil, gasoline and lubricating oil, at Winnipeg, which refinery is expected to begin operations about the middle of the year, are estimated to be about $1,000,000 to $1,500,000 annually, or equal to the dividends upon the Preferred Stock. With the completion of other refineries, earnings are expected to materially increase.

4. The Company has affiliations with large and responsible producers in the United States and Canada, and is in a position to obtain the best quality of oil, gasoline, and other petroleum products for the Western trade.

Applications, which should be accompanied with cheque for full payment, will be received only on the understanding that the right is reserved by us to allot all, a portion only, or none of the amount applied for. In the event of a partial allotment the balance, and if none be allotted the full amount forwarded, will be returned to the applicant.

Interim Certificates will be issued pending payment of definitive certificates.

It is intended that application be made to list this issue on the Toronto, Montreal and Winnipeg Stock Exchanges.

Price: Par ($5.00 per share), carrying a Bonus of 40% in Common Stock.

TORONTO

OSLER, HAMMOND & NANTON
WINNIPEGFIRST GLIMPSE
OF THE SPRINGNew Lettuce On the Open
Market To-day.Other Supplies Were Very Limited.

Tuesday, March 9.—A load of beef, a load of lamb, a few loads of general produce—possibly half a dozen—and a small supply of butter and eggs, constituted the market to-day. Business was exceedingly dull.

The only feature of note, was the appearance of lettuce, which is not normally sold on the market during the cold months. Some of very fine quality was offered at 10 cents per bush or three for 25 cents. Apples, pears, peaches, and water vegetables were in limited supply.

Prices, which follow, were unchanged since Saturday.
